So^th. Carolina THE GAZETTE:

MONDAY

October 15th, 1753.

This Day arrived here, Capt. Elmes and Capt. Edmonds, from London, but last from Cowes and Poole; by whom we have the following freſh Advices from our Correſpondents.

LONDON, July 31.

ACCORDING to letters from Amſterdam, the Dutch have taken 336 Whales this year.

Two men of war and 3 frigates are ſailed to protect our trade on the coaſt of Africa.

London, Auguſt 2. By yeſterday's letters from Spain there is an account of nine conſiderable bankruptcies there, viz. ſix at Cadiz, two at Madrid, and one at Seville.

We have the pleaſure to inform the public, that the ſucceſs of the Britiſh whale fiſhery is greater than has been for theſe 20 years, the ſhips fitted out in England and Scotland having caught 184 whales, ſo that we ſhall be able to ſupply foreign markets with whalebone, to the great advantage of commerce, and the intereſt of this kingdom.

London, Auguſt 7. On Sunday night was held a general council, and afterwards a cabinet council, at Kenſington, which did not break up 'till two o'clock yeſterday morning.

London, Auguſt 11. The Centurion man of war, fitting out at Portſmouth, is to carry Sir Danvers Oſborne to his government of New-York.

The government has contracted for ſome tranſports to carry ſtores, &c. to the Weſt-Indies.

By a letter from Stirling in North Britain we are informed, that ſeveral parties from the regiments of foot quartered in thoſe parts, are in queſt of ſome perſons concerned in the late rebellion, who according to information have lately returned from abroad.

London, Auguſt 14. It is ſtrongly reported, that the parliament will be diſſolved the 27th of September next; and that the writs will be returnable the latter end of November.

London, Auguſt 16. By a letter from Edinburgh we are informed, that on the 2d inſtant Mr. Whitfield the Itinerant, being at Glaſgow, and preaching to a numerous audience near the Play-houſe lately built, he inflamed the mob ſo much againſt it, that they ran directly from before him, and pulled it down to the ground. Several of the rioters are ſince taken up, and committed to gaol.

London, Auguſt 21. It is ſaid that ſeveral men of war will ſpeedily be put into commiſſion to cruize in the Channel, in order to obſerve the motions of a French ſquadron which is equipping at Breſt.

By a letter from Dunkirk we are informed, that there are near a thouſand men employed in digging the trench round the fortifications of that town; and that as far as they have gone it is already more than 40 feet deep, and is conſiderably broader than Tower-ditch.—The ſame letter takes notice, that ſtrangers are not permitted to be very nice in their obſervations in this particular, two or three having been taken into cuſtody for the ſame.

CHARLES-TOWN, October 15.
